

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Scott Luna and Carl Luna and their Staff Join Robertson Anschutz Vettters

Houston, Texas (March 1, 2017) – Robertson Anschutz Vettters (RAV) is excited and honored to announce Scott Luna and Carl Luna and their large experienced staff have joined the law firm effective March 1, 2017. For many years, the former firm, Luna & Luna, LLP, practiced real estate law in Plano, Texas, in addition to running an active title company business. For the prior two years, Scott and Carl and their staff were employed with The Underwood Law Firm of Amarillo, Texas.

Scott, who joins as a partner, and Carl bring an impressive list of clients to RAV. Importantly, this merger provides RAV with a presence in the Dallas Metroplex to compliment the firm’s offices in Houston and Austin. Scott Luna said of the merger “The transition to RAV will be easy for our staff as our firm has utilized RAV’s proprietary Docs on Demand software for many years.” Jim Robertson added “Scott and Carl Luna share similar business cultures and philosophies with RAV and our merger with them will allow RAV to better serve our clients.”
